The Faculty of Law, Bar Ilan University, in cooperation with the International Chamber of Commerce, announces the opening of a new program:

Executive Masters Program in International Business Law (LL.M.)

The program offers a variety of courses in International Trade Law, International Commercial Arbitration, International Tax Planning, European Union Law, Secured Transactions, Law and Entrepreneurship, Taxing of Hi-Tech Companies, and more. The courses are taught by leading authorities in their field.

The first two semesters will be taught in Hebrew at the Bar Ilan University campus in Israel on Tuesdays and Fridays. The third semester will be taught in English in Paris at the headquarters of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) by high ranking officials of the ICC and the Court of International Commercial Arbitration. It will include courses on arbitration and mediation under the rules of the ICC, as well as on the uniform commercial instruments promulgated by the ICC, such as the INCOTERMS and the UCP. There will also be a study visit to the OECD that will deal with the legal implications of the acceptance of Israel into this important organization.

The number of students that will be accepted is limited.

For more information and to apply to the program, please contact the graduate program office at:
Phone: 972-3-531-8816 or E-mail: law.research@mail.biu.ac.il