A Microcosm of Israeli Society

Bar-Ilan University, one of Israel's leading institutions of higher education, is uniquely academic by design and Jewish by nature. Thousands of students pursue their BA, MA, PhD and MDs on our Ramat Gan and Safed campuses; many more are enrolled in certificate and enrichment programs, including the largest in-service teacher training program in Israel.

A microcosm of Israeli society, BIU's diverse student body represents the four "tribes" of Israel: secular Jews, national religious Jews, ultra-orthodox Jews, and Arabs. With tolerance and civility our operating code, the multicultural environment on campus provides a singular forum for free thought and exchange, as well as open discussion.

Impact Beyond Excellence

Since its establishment in 1955, Bar-Ilan University has grown and developed from an institution with 70 students to one with a flourishing central Israel campus of 17,000. Its milestone achievements in science and humanities and in all fields of human endeavors have made an indelible imprint on the landscape of the State of Israel.

Today, the university is looking forward to a new period of transformational growth, through the establishment of challenge-driven research centers, incorporation of innovative instructional methods, intensification of global outreach efforts, embracement of pro-active community relations, and broadening of the discourse and dialogue in the Jewish world and in Israeli society.

Our aspirations are ambitious, but eminently achievable: to take the notion of "excellence" far beyond its traditional boundaries, so that it will impact lives and people. Join us as we embark on an exciting journey of innovation, influence and inspiration, now and in the years to come.
