The Department of Music at Bar-Ilan University and the Israel Musicological Society
Cordially Invite You to an International Conference Honoring
Prof. Joachim Braun
on his 80th Birthday

Margot Pulitzer-Rosenberg Auditorium
Marcus and Ann Rosenberg Music Building (1005)
North Campus
January 16, 2011
Program

14:00-14:30 Reception in the Presence of the Latvian Ambassador to Israel, H. E. Martins Perts
Exhibition of Books by Prof. Joachim Braun
Curator: Efrat Mor

14:30-14:45 Greetings

Prof. Dov Schwartz –
Chair, the Department of Music

Prof. Judith Cohen –
The Israel Musicological Society

Prof. Bathia Churgin – Survey of Prof. Joachim Braun's Research

14:45-15:15 Musical Interlude

Dmitry Shostakovich – Four settings from the cycle "From Jewish Folk Poetry", Op. 79
Yiddish Adaptation by Prof. Joachim Braun
Performed by Eva Ben-Zvi, soprano, Irena Scherbin, mezzo-soprano, Ela Shposhnik, piano
Musical Direction – Dr. Rita Flomenboim

15:15-16:00 First Session – Guest Lecturer (in English)

Prof. Martin Boiko (Latvian Academy of Music and Riga Stradins University):
"Contemporary Musical Identities in Latvia (Latvian, Russian, Jewish)"

16:15-18:15 Second Session

Dr. Rita Flomenboim (Levinsky College, Tel-Aviv): "The Contribution of the National School of Jewish Art Music to the Music of the 20th Century"

Prof. Ethan Haimo (Bar-Ilan University):
"Schoenberg and Judaism"

Dr. Rachel Kollender (Bar-Ilan University and Jerusalem College):
"Yidl Mitn Fidl – The Story of a Popular Tune"

Dr. Gila Flam (National Library, Jerusalem):
"'In dem vaytn land Sibir‘: The Work of the Musicologist Moshe Beregovski and its Contribution to the Study of Music of Eastern European Jews"

Dr. Mira Waner (Bar-Ilan University):
"Aspects of Musical Culture in Roman and Byzantine Sepphoris - Who Played What?"

18:15-18:30 Coffee Break

18:30-19:00 Concert by "The Phoenix Ensemble"
Musical Direction – Dr. Myrna Herzog

16:00-16:15 Coffee Break